Dear Sir:

We return herewith the application of Abraham Nevins for a passport, together with the naturalization certificate and $1.00 for the fee.

In explanation of the difference between the name Nevins and Novins, we beg to state that when the applicant first came from Polish Russia his true name was Abraham Novinsky. This name was shortened to Novins and under that name he was known until, under the advice of counsel in 1891, he had his name changed by process of law in the City Court of New York from Abraham Novinsky to Abraham Nevins. We enclose herewith copy of the petition and order in the City Court, and beg to state that these facts are within my personal knowledge and I will be glad to embody the same in an affidavit if that should be necessary.
